Money is in good supply at low rates. Call loans are at 6 1/2 per cent, and commercial paper 5 1/2 per cent for prime and good names. Long paper passes at 7 per cent. At Cincinnati, on Tuesday: The money market remains in an easy condition for good paper. The demand is moderate, and the supply is equal to the demand. The market is quiet, and the rates are steady.

There was a good inquiry for money at the leading discount houses, though in the aggregate it was not pressing as last week. The country banks are still checking on the Government, and drawing on the National Banks, though not to any great amount. Paper is still slowly accumulating. The market for Western exchange was quiet. The market for Canadian exchange was quiet.
